

Biosketch

Mauricio Tohen, MD, DrPH, MBA

AACDP Position: Secretary-Treasurer

Mauricio Tohen, MD, DrPH, MBA is University Distinguished Professor and Chairman of the Department of Psychiatry & Behavioural Sciences at the University of New Mexico HSC in Albuquerque NM, USA. He was born in Mexico City. He attended the Faculty of Medicine at UNAM. He completed a Residency in Psychiatry at the University of Toronto, and a Fellowship in Psychopharmacology at McLean Hospital/Harvard Medical School. He also obtained a Doctorate in Epidemiology at Harvard School of Public Health and an MBA from Indiana University. In 2014 Dr Tohen was recognized in Thomson Reuter's "The World's Most Influential Scientific Minds, 2014". He was one of 100 scientists worldwide recognized in the Psychiatry/psychology category. Dr Tohen has published over 350 publications and has over 30,000 scientific citations. In 2016 the International Society for Bipolar disorders awarded him the Mogens Schou award for Education and Teaching. In 2017, Dr Tohen was Recognized by Expertscape as having the top % 0.12 expertise in bipolar disorder worldwide based on citations of published articles between 2007-2017 and between 2010-2020